Lending Solutions, Inc. to Host Free Webinar Exclusively for Fiserv Galaxy Clients
- Special aggregate 24/7 member service model for Galaxy Plus credit unions launched -

ELGIN, IL, March 4, 2009 – Lending Solutions, Inc. (LSI), a leading provider of contact center services, is hosting a free webinar on March 18, 2009 to discuss its special aggregate member service program to credit unions that utilize the Fiserv Galaxy data processing platform. In addition to introducing the aggregate pricing model, the webinar will highlight the value in offering 24/7 service to members in today's challenging marketplace, and a real-time demo of the system will be presented.

LSI has the ability to field and fulfill over 90% of inbound member service call volume. With the new aggregated offering, Galaxy Plus clients can take advantage of their peer's call volume to drive the usage costs down. Some of the program highlights and benefits include: Zero shared branching fees, industry-leading cross-sales, and quality 24/7 service to members. In addition, many credit unions view this as the perfect disaster recovery/business continuity solution.

"At LSI, our goal is to help our clients provide the ultimate service to their members, while keeping their operating costs to a minimum in today's competitive environment", states Jeff Frantz, senior vice president of corporate development at Lending Solutions, Inc. "Providing this high level of service 24/7 improves member retention and attracts new members through positive word-of-mouth."

Credit unions can sign up for the webinar by visiting <http://lendingsolutions.webex.com/eventcenter> or contacting Bill Hultstrand at marketing@nlpc.com.
